Navajo Nation

Navajo Nation Information

Share Add To Bucket List

Welcome to the Navajo Nation!

The Navajo Nation extends into the states of Utah, Arizona and New Mexico, covering over 27,000 square miles of unparalleled beauty. The Navajo Reservation is home to more than a dozen national monuments, tribal parks and historical sites, and is peppered with a dozen lakes and ponds - Lake Powell alone has 186 miles of Navajoland shoreline.

Here you can step back in time and see how the ancient ones - the Anasazi people - lived thousands of years ago. The Navajo Nation has an array of ancient ruins, including the world renowned Navajo National Monument and the tranquil Chaco Culture National Historical Park. From the towering formations of Monument Valley to the majestic red sandstone walls and lush green valley floor of Canyon de Chelly, this is a land of great contrasts. We invite you to discover Navajo.

Travel Info
 Time Zone: Mountain Standard Time

The Navajo Nation recognizes Daylight Savings Time, even though the state of Arizona does not. Please be aware of this while on your tour! When it is 2 PM in Arizona, it is 3 PM on the Navajo Nation.

While traveling on the Navajo Nation, please remember that you are on a sovereign, self-governing nation, please obey all tribal laws and regulations. You do not need a passport to travel on Navajo Nation land. Navajo law enforcement

Day 1

Olympia / Shelton, Washington

Arrive early in Seattle, Washington and depart to the Evergreen State College Campus in Olympia, WA to visit the Longhouse Education and Cultural Center. "The House of Welcomes" (sq'w'gh'w'k'w'k'), was the first building constructed on a public campus that is based on Native American traditions that exists to provide service and hospitality to students, faculty, visitors and the surrounding Native Communities. It's primary functions are to provide a gathering place for hosting cultural ceremonies, classes, conferences, performances, art exhibits, and community events. After the tour travel west to Shelton, Washington to visit the "Home of Sacred Belongings" (x'wed'gh'w'ab'w'k') - The Squaxin Island Museum Library and Research Center to explore the past and present stories of the Squaxin Island Tribe. There you can walk through the "Hall of the Seven Inlets" a permanent exhibit which depicts the relationship between the people and the seven watersheds of South Puget Sound, as well as, learn about the history, traditional legends and Native language. End your day by staying at the Little Creek Casino Resort, just 10 minutes away from the Squaxin Island Museum.
